LENTERA HUKUM is an open-access and peer-reviewed law journal, published three times a year. The journal covers both domestic and international legal developments, providing a venue for distinguished scholars and new academics around the world to share their academic works.

This journal is dedicated to encouraging scholarly attention and advancing the intimate knowledge of recent legal discourses. It accommodates high-quality manuscripts relevant to the endeavors of scholars and legal professionals with fundamental and long-term analysis in the light of empirical, theoretical, multi-disciplinary, and comparative approaches.

The focus of the journal is legal studies. Articles submitted to this journal are on contemporary legal discourses in the light of theoretical, doctrinal, multidisciplinary, empirical, and comparative studies. The scope of the paper submissions includes constitutional and administrative law, corporate law, criminal justice, adat law, law and society, international law, international economic law, human rights law, and intellectual property law.

This journal provides immediate open access to its content on the principle that making research freely available to the public supports a greater global exchange of knowledge. This journal is an open-access journal which means that all content is freely available without charge to users or institutions. Users are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to full-text articles in this Journal without asking prior permission from the publisher or author(s).

Faculty of Law, University of Jember

Established in 1964, it is one of the premier law schools in Indonesia. Its purpose is to be the leading law school in the Southeast Asian region in teaching and research. To this end, the Faculty of Law extends international partnerships and exchange programs to bring together the best expertise with many other law schools abroad and has made agreements with law schools in Thailand, Germany, Vietnam, and Malaysia. The Faculty of Law pursues its objectives through publication and cooperation with other institutions and other means. Visit: fh.unej.ac.id.
